Hunterdon Central's Tablet PC Academy is an amazing professional development experience for teachers taking tablets into the classroom and a wonderful foundation for schools beginning a tablet program. In this three-day conference with teachers and technologists, you will:

- Learn practical applications for tablet PC integration in your classrooms
- Use the tablet to increase student engagement
- Practice productivity tips
- Share knowledge with colleagues
- Collaborate with other professionals
- Understand how to plan a successful tablet PC program

Hunterdon Central's tablet program was recognized at the annual Workshop on the Impact of Pen-based Technology on Education, WIPTE 2007, and is featured in a book by Purdue University Press.

Conference Fee: $490.00 per person
After June 1, 2008, the cost will be $690.00 per person.

Located in beautiful Hunterdon County in central New Jersey, Hunterdon Central Regional High School is nearby to many area attractions such as the Historic Flemington Court House (site of the Lindbergh Trial) and the Liberty Village Premium Outlets. Cultural activities are just minutes away in Lambertville, New Jersey; and New Hope, Pennsylvania.

For those without a tablet, loaner tablets will be available during the conference.
